The fourth is almost here. What are we going to do? Ocala must have attractions that will draw the people and replenish our pockets, for the Picnic island folks have the town's loose change.

M. E. Weeks of Melrose stepped off of the train for a minute or two today to transact some business. He must be a hustler when he can attend to business while the train is making its regular stop.

The excursion on the Plant system was well patronized yesterday. Over 1900 people went to Picnic Island, 400 of whom went from Ocala. The day was a grand success and everybody reports a good time.

Rev. T. J. Davenport had a good day's work yesterday. He arose at 5 a. m., married a couple at 6, went to Sunday school at 10, and at 11 preached to a full congregation a rousing sermon from Romans xii. 2—"Be not conformed to this world," etc. To temperance meeting at 4 and to church at night, where he preached his farewell sermon to a good and appreciative audience from John ix. 4, "I must work the works of him who sent me." Mr. Davenport will leave Ocala in a day or two for a few months' visit in different parts of the southern states before settling down to another appointment. We will be very sorry to lose this excellent minister from our city, where he has made many warm friends during his brief sojourn among us. His sermons of yesterday—especially that of the morning—were very eloquent and left a deep impression upon his hearers. The best wishes of this paper accompany him.
